Summer Reading Recap

Dan the Snake Man

Summer reading concluded with the always popular Dan the Snake Man and his reptile show.

Dirtmeister

Dirtmeister returned with another spectacular science program! We always have fun learning with Steve is in the house. He also donated several more of his books to our collection!

Taekwondo

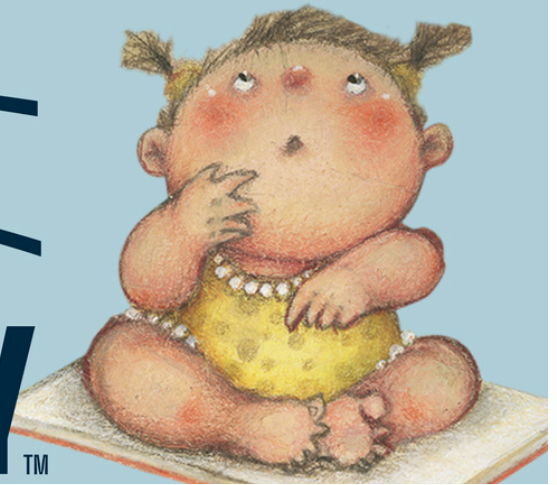

Mast Tiffany taught taekwondo in Muldoon Park throughout August. These classes were free and open to ages 5 and up!

We hope to offer these lessons again next summer.

Story Times in the Park

August saw another month of story times in Muldoon Park. Most days the weather was perfect; we had one rainy morning in the gazebo.

Toddler Time

Our popular toddler time is growing! This is a wonderful opportunity for preschoolers to come together to learn and play.

Story Time

Our story times are for all ages, with a focus on older activities. This group is perfect for homeschool families!

Art Programming - August

We had a fantastic time at our August art classes. Jae taught students various printmaking techniques including monoprints with aluminum foil and trash bags, collagraphs, and styrofoam relief prints. This course was sponsored by the Community Arts Grant through The ARTS Council of the Southern Fingerlakes.

Art Programming - September

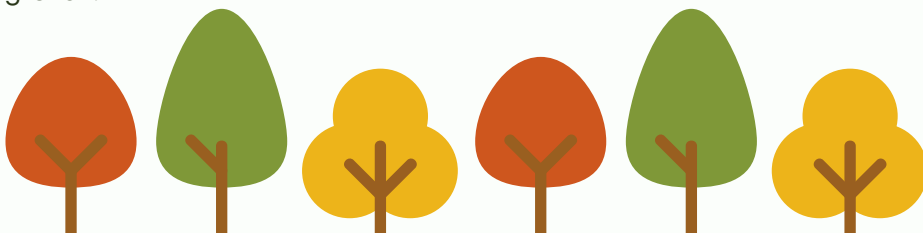

Sponsored by the Community Arts Grant through The ARTS Council of the Southern Finger Lakes, mural painting will be held on Tuesday, September 10, 4pm - 6pm and Tuesday, September 17, 4pm - 6pm.

Displays

August had some really fun displays including one about the Olympics featuring Snoop Dog. National Wellness Month and Beach Reads displays were a big hit too! Currently on display is "Find Your Inner Nerd" day books and 80s Nostalgia. Check one out on a subject that interests you! Keep your eye open next month for National Mushroom Month and Hispanic Heritage Month displays.
